

COLLEGE FINAL EXAMINATIONS

Programme: Degree and Diploma in Education

Academic Year: 2019/2020

Year of Study: One

Trimester: 3

Module Title: Citizenship and Transformative Education

Module Code: CTE1111

Time: 8:00-10:00am

Duration: 2hrs

Date: January 27, 2021

Instructions: This examination paper comprises Two (2) Sections. Section A is composed of 19 questions and Section B has six questions. Answer all questions in Section A out of 30 marks and Two (2) questions of Section B out of 20 marks. Total Score: 50 marks

Section A

[30 marks]

Write the letter of the correct answer

1. Civic Education is generally understood as a means to develop three main elements. Below are the descriptions of each element. Write the name of the Civic Education's element corresponding to each of the following descriptions.
 - a) They involve citizens acquiring the ability to explain, analyze, interact, evaluate, defend a position on public issues, and monitor processes and outcomes.
 - b) They encompass interpersonal and intrapersonal values, virtues and behaviors.
 - c) Citizens understand the workings of the political system, their duties, rights and responsibilities [1.5 mark]
2. Sharing individual quiz on class WhatsApp group
 - a) Shows students' integrity
 - b) Is against students' integrity
 - c) Is an act of patriotism
 - d) None is correct
 - e) All are false. [1 mark]
3. Oversight institutions whose function is to oversee the three arms of the Government of Rwanda for the sake of reinforcing integrity in public management include:
 - a) National Electoral Commission
 - b) Rwanda Biomedical Centre
 - c) Office of the Ombudsman
 - d) National Agricultural Export Development Board
 - e) Rwanda Development Board [1 mark]
4. The UN specialized agency that focuses on promoting the rights of children is:
 - a) UNESCO
 - b) UNIFEM

Setting of the examination: Dr Sylvestre Nzahabwanayo, Delphine Mukingambeho, Dr Jean Leonard Buhigiro

Moderation: Idem

c) UNICEF

d) FAO.

[1 mark]

5. The Committee on the Status of Women (CSW) is:

a) A UN body under ECOSOC that has been instrumental in the development of women's rights treaties

b) The treaty body that oversees the implementation of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW)

c) A Non- Governmental Organization that lobbies for the advancement of women

d) A regional body set up to provide expert advice on the status of women in the region.

[1 mark]

6. Who has the primary responsibility for enforcing human rights?

a) Individuals

b) States

c) The International Community

d) The Security Council.

[1 mark]

7. Which of the following right is NOT protected by the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR)?

a) The right to access to health facilities and services

b) The right to free and compulsory primary education

c) The right to be free from torture

d) The right to take part in cultural life.

[1 mark]

8. Human rights obligations that require action on the part of a government are known as:

a) No human rights obligations require action on the part of governments

b) Positive obligations

c) Marginal obligations

d) Negative obligations

[1 mark]

9. Unequal access to education is a good example of:

a) Physical violence

b) Structural violence

c) Cultural violence

d) Symbolic violence

[1 mark]

10. In a conflict tree, the core problem of the conflict is represented by the:

a) Trunk

b) Roots

Setting of the examination: Dr Sylvestre Nzahabwanayo, Delphine Mukingambeho, Dr Jean Leonard Buhigiro

Moderation: Idem

- c) Fruits
- d) Leaves
- e) Branches

[1 mark]

11. The right to “equal protection before the law” is a good example of

- a) Social right
- b) Political right
- c) Civil right
- d) Economic
- e) Cultural right

[1 mark]

12. The following measures match better with national identity

- a) Identification with the nation; attitudes towards the country and national stereotypes
- b) Patriotism
- c) Participation to national celebrations
- d) Participation to elections and knowing national symbols

[1 mark]

13. One of the following does not refer to the importance of a national flag

- a) To represent the tradition, history, and beliefs of a nation and its people.
- b) To help evoke feelings of patriotism among the country’s citizens and reminds them of their nation’s glory, beauty, and rich heritage.
- c) To help unite the citizens of the country by one single song or music.
- d) To know the slogan to use during battlefield.

[1 mark]

14. One aspect does not show unifying vision of traditional kings of Rwanda

- a) Military ideology
- b) Ubwiru
- c) Participation of different clans to power
- d) Family genealogy
- e) Celebration of umuganura

[1 mark]

15. Answer by True or False

- ✓ a) Negative peace is guaranteed when everybody is able to meet his/her basic needs.
- ✓ b) Positive peace means that people can express themselves freely on any given topic.
- ✓ c) In critical peace education, social injustices and other forms of structural, cultural and symbolic violence are interrogated.
- ✓ d) Post-colonial peace education entails to focus on localized forms of discrimination and address them using international approaches to social justice especially those from the West.

[4 marks]

16. Choose a model, ideology or theory that explains citizenship in the following way in this classical world history by matching A and B:

A	B
1. Liberalism	a. Emphasis is on ‘public thing’ and civic values, beyond rights claims

Setting of the examination: Dr Sylvestre Nzahabwanayo, Delphine Mukingambeho, Dr Jean Leonard Buhigiro

Moderation: Idem

- 1 e
2 d
3 a
4 b
5 c

2. Multiculturalism	b. the practice (current in France, for eg.) of requiring minorities and immigrants to adopt the customs and practices of the majority population.
3. Republicanism	c. the ideology that all human beings belong to a single community, a world state, or a decentralized and inclusive global structure. The idea that there are moral duties and obligations owed to all human beings based solely on our humanity alone, without reference to ethnicity, nationality, political association, race, culture, religion or other communal particularities.
4. Cosmopolitanism	d. diverse ethnic and cultural groups receive equal treatment and are entitled to maintain their differences (eg. Canada), the co-existence of diverse cultures, where culture includes racial, religious, or cultural groups and is manifested in customary behaviours, cultural assumptions and values, patterns of thinking, and communicative styles
5. Assimilationism	e. advocates individual rights/interests, self-help, formal equality, tolerance, a market economy and a minimal state.

[2.5 marks]

17. Match the letter in column A with corresponding figure in column B

[5 marks]

A	B
1. Elements of integrity	a. Rwanda adopted this political system where decisions are discussed and agreed upon by both political parties in power position and those in opposition.
2. Mulisa works in a teacher training college. His colleague John noted that when Mulisa is marking students, he applies his marking scheme the same way to all of them. When Mulisa is offering Teaching Methods module, he keeps emphasizing on fairness in marking.	b. - What a person does: his/her actions and behaviours -What is right: ethical values, moral principles, wisdom
3. Consensual democracy	c. What the teacher does reflects internal integrity.
4. Jane works in an urban secondary school. She likes using her free	d. What the teacher does reflects external integrity.

- 1 b
2 c
3 e
4 d, f
5 a

Setting of the examination: Dr Sylvestre Nzahabwanayo, Delphine Mukingambeho, Dr Jean Leonard Buhigiro

Moderation: Idem

time to assist students with disabilities.
	e. In this political system, people elect their leaders and take political decisions basing on their territorial differences or ethnic denominations. The political party that lost election has to wait for the next election to have an opportunity to enter the government.
5. Consociational democracy	f. Schools are agents of integrity enhancement.

18. Match the item in Column A to corresponding item in Column B on the characteristics of human rights [4 marks]

Column A	Column B
1. Inalienable	a. Human rights are included in different treaties.
2. Indivisible	b. Human rights cannot be renounced.
3. Universal	c. One human right is linked to the realization of the others.
4. Internationally guaranteed	d. Human rights are guaranteed to all regardless of race, colour, sex, religion.

Section B

[20 marks]

19. Can we affirm that there is a working integrity system in current Rwandan socio-political context? Substantiate your answer. [10 marks]

20. Outline any four outcomes of this module and explain why they are important to a future educator. [10 marks]

21. A conflict passes through different phases or stages. With clear examples, explain any four conflict stages. [10 marks]

22. After explaining each of the four obligations of the state in relation to human rights (the obligation to respect, protect, fulfil and promote human rights), demonstrate, using clear examples, how a state can respect, protect, fulfil and promote the right to Education. [10 marks]

23. Explain the role of schools in keeping children safer from online risks, threats and harms [10 marks]

24. In a short essay of not more than one page, portray an ideal Rwandan citizen. [10 marks]

-----END-----

Setting of the examination: Dr Sylvestre Nzahabwanayo, Delphine Mukingambeho, Dr Jean Leonard Buhigiro

Moderation: Idem